Wednesday October 26, 2016

At the General Meeting of the ACP (French private-sector broadcasters' association), held today Wednesday October 26, Gilles Pélisson, Chairman and Chief Executive of the TF1 group, was appointed as the association's Chairman.

He succeeds Nicolas de Tavernost, Chairman of the Management Board of the M6 group, who had chaired the association since 2014.

This appointment, made unanimously by the members, complies with the ACP's articles of association, which require rotation in the office of President.
